REACHING AUSTIN
ESTABLISHING AN APOSTOLIC CHURCH
IN A POSTMODERN CITY

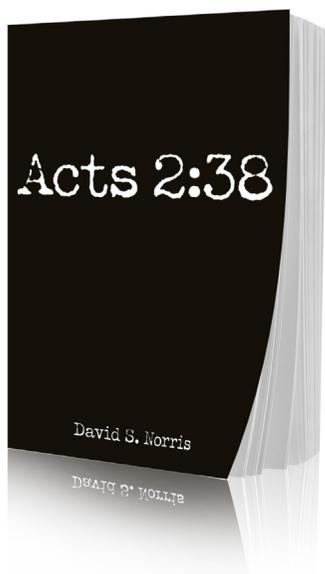

DAVID K. BERNARD

“Keep Austin Weird”, the informal motto of the city of Austin, Texas, might make the average person think twice about the idea of starting a church there. But for David and Connie Bernard, it was a place they had both called home and would prove to be fertile ground for planting a church that would grow from zero to over one thousand during an eighteen-year pastorate. This book tells the story of the beginnings of New Life Austin and a network of daughter churches working to reach this beautiful city in the Texas Hill Country.

The chains of addiction and sexual immorality had chased her for her entire life, and the battle didn't end when she was baptized. In fact, in many ways, the battle was just beginning. ## COLOSSIANS: CHRIST ALL IN ALL

NATHAN S. WHITLEY

The Apostle Paul's intent in writing the Colossians letter was to correct erroneous teachings infiltrating the Colossian church. In doing so, Paul presents Christ as all-encompassing and all-sufficient. Colossians provides one of Scripture's most straightforward presentations of the deity and supremacy of Jesus Christ.

HEBREWS: CHRIST IS SUPERIOR

NATHAN S. WHITLEY

The Hebrews letter is one of the most intriguing books of the Bible. Many New Testament readers unfamiliar with the Old Testament may find its contents puzzling or irrelevant. However, Hebrews reveals the Bible is not a collection of unrelated stories but a unified story - the story of humanity's redemption through Jesus Christ. Hebrews unfolds the glorious tapestry of God's progressive revelation and its climax in Jesus, allowing us to see His superiority.

MIRACLE

WILLIAM TURNER

Miracle was the obvious title for this book. The miraculous had already been an astounding prelude to the amazing personal miracle Don and Sandra Hanscom experienced at the beginning of their life and ministry in Pakistan. Their wondrous personal miracle is told in the opening chapters of this book, but the miraculous dimension of their ministry would continue in the years that followed. That a major, Apostolic revival of the Book of Acts proportions could take place inside a nation nearly 98 percent Muslim has itself been an ongoing miracle. This story is a confirmation of a pattern intended for the 21st-century church.

SUMMER 2022 CURRICULUM REVIEW

Summer kicks off this year with a hallmark of our Apostolic heritage: Pentecost Sunday! This quarter God's Word for Life will be an asset for churches by providing a Pentecost Sunday lesson, followed by series that help us take the message of Pentecost to others. With this aligned exploration of the Bible, all ages can apply God's Word for Life at home and at church.

SERIES 1: LOVING THE UNLOVED

Taking the message of Pentecost to others begins with love and compassion. Jesus loves all people, whether they are overlooked and deemed unimportant, seen as outcasts in society, or even hated and marginalized by others. Just as Jesus loved those others refused to love, we are called to show and share His love without discrimination. This series helps to highlight the command of Jesus to love your neighbor as yourself.

SERIES 2: GOD IS OUR REFUGE (A STUDY OF PSALMS)

Scripture makes clear that offenses will come; our response determines our future. We must determine to never allow hurt to turn us away from God but rather toward Him. This series will show how the Lord will be our refuge and bring strength and healing to those who are hurting and overtaken with burdens. Psalm 22, Psalm 34, Psalm 46, and Psalm 55 teach us that no matter what we may face in this life, we can be confident God will be near and will help us carry the burdens we have been tasked to bear.

SERIES 3: THE IMPORTANCE OF GOD'S WORD

Our beliefs, our actions, and even the condition of our heart must align perfectly with the Word of God to be everything He calls us to be. This series will emphasize the necessity of hearing and obeying Scripture and will accentuate the promises and power that inherently accompany His written Word. From Jehoiakim's blatant disregard for God's Word to Josiah's humble submission to the Book of the Law, this series will show how important it is for individuals to heed God's Word and put it into practice in their lives.
